

Church of the Holy Cross

(A Parish of The Episcopal Diocese of Dallas
& the worldwide Anglican Communion)
400 S. Church Street, Paris, Texas 75460

Beloved in Christ,

Church of the Holy Cross exists for one purpose: to nourish our souls with spiritual food—so that we can be transformed in Christ and serve Him together in this life and the next.

That's a pretty tall order! But whether we arrive at the church doorstep as infants or seniors, as life-long or lapsed or brand new followers of the Way, this simple purpose remains the same for everyone.

How our mission gets lived out varies: some among us enjoy large blocks of time to spend in prayer and service. Others juggle jobs and families and fit in precious few minutes of worship whenever possible.

Meanwhile, at Holy Cross children learn the Bible stories, youth go on mission trips, seniors assist youth (and vice versa!), the sick are visited and the needy helped. Along the way, we all share copious amounts of food and fellowship...

Prayer—both public and private—undergirds it all.

Our Sunday worship remains within the traditional Anglican liturgical experience... with reverent prayer and song, weekly celebration of Holy Eucharist ("Communion" or "Mass"), and usually an adult homily and a Children's Sermon.
